(A)

No.1 M: Mrs. Amaral. Could you check what I've written for the speech contest?
W: Sure, Sean. But I have a class right now.
M: Okay. When should I come back?

No.2 W: Who is the young man next to you in this picture?
M: That's my older brother. His name is Matthew.
W: Oh, really? What does he do?

No.3 M: Welcome to Home Center. Can I help you?
W: Hello. I'd like to paint my living room.
M: Let me show you our paint department. What color do you need?

(B)

No.1 M: Excuse me. I've been waiting for my food for nearly 30 minutes.
W: I'm very sorry, sir. What did you order?
M: A chicken parmigiana.
W: Okay. I'll check with the chef right away.
W: Question: What's the man's problem?

No.2 M: Hello?
W: Hi Greg, it's Janice. I'm inviting some friends over on Saturday for lunch and a movie.
Do you want to come?
M: Sure! What should I bring?
W: You don't have to bring anything. We're ordering a pizza, and I'm renting a DVD.
M: Question: Why did the woman call the man?

No.3 W: Welcome to Violet's Book Store. Can I help you find anything?
M: Yes. Do you have the new novel by William Carson?
W: I'm sorry, we've just sold the last one. We'll get more on Monday, though.
M: Okay. I'll come back then.
W: Question: What will the man do on Monday?

No.4 M: Excuse me. You dropped this book.
W: Oh, thank you so much! It was a present from my grandfather.
M: Well, your backpack is open.
W: Oh no! I hope nothing else fell out.
M: Question: What did the man do for the woman?
