1

M: Mary, do we have plans for dinner tomorrow?

W: I was going to make tacos for dinner. Why?

M: Could I invite Noah to come eat with us?

W: Sure. I'll cook enough for everyone.

Question: What does the man want to do?

2

W: Hello, I'd like a green tea latte, please.

M: What size would you like?

W: Medium.

M: For here, or to go?

W: To go, please.

Question: Where are the man and woman?

3

W: What's wrong, Joseph?

M: I can't find my blue shirt.

W: When did you wear it last?

M: On Monday.

W: Then, it's in the laundry.

Question: What is the man's problem?

4

W: Mr. Garcia? I'm sorry but I need to leave work early today.

M: Oh. What's wrong?

W: My daughter is sick. I need to get her from school.

M: Oh, I see.

Question: What will the woman do today?

5

M: We need five apples for this pie.

W: There are two in the refrigerator

M: It's not enough. We need three more.

W: Okay, I'll buy them tonight.

Question: How many apples will the woman buy?

During my winter vacation, I took a trip to the Kansai area. I stayed in a nice hotel in Kobe. There were many restaurants with so much delicious food there. In Osaka, I went to an aquarium and I saw a very big whale shark. I also went to Kyoto to meet my friend who lives there. She took me to various sightseeing spots there, such as temples, castles, and museums. But my favorite part of my trip was visiting Nara. I was surprised by all the deer. I gave them some crackers. I would like to visit the Kansai area again. Maybe next time I will go in the Fall. I hear it's beautiful during that season.

Question 1: Where did the woman stay?      Question 2: What did the woman do in Nara?
